

2009 History Summer Day Camp

Summer and history don't have to be boring when children can enjoy both at one of the El Paso Museum of History's four day Summer Day Camp programs. Children have a choice of attending one or both of the Museum's Day Camps offered below:

YWCA Retro Camp for Boys & Girls

9 am to noon June 30 - July 3, Children from 6-8 years old, grades 1 -3

9 am to noon July 7 - July 10, Children from 9-12 years old, grades 4-7

Travel back and enjoy camp activities from 1936. Unlike 1936, boys are allowed. Children will learn about nature in the city, make ships out of soap, shadow puppets, and other fun things. On the last day of camp, children will perform a puppet and musical show for their friends and relatives.

Junior Curator Camp

9 am to noon, July 21 - 24 for children 6-8 years old, grades 1-3

9 am to noon, August 4 - 7 for children from 9-12 years old, grades 4-7

Students will learn how to be caretakers of public treasures. Activities include: discovering how old is an object, learn how to care for a collection and make reproductions of historical objects. Older children will have the opportunity to look at antique firearms,

Registration is $64 for El Paso Museum of History members and $80 for non-members. Registration is accepted on a first-come first-served basis. Attendance is limited to fifteen students per camp.
